Oyler Motors and the G. L. Bream garage teams scored victories in the Community Softball league Thursday evening played before a good-sized crowd on the new recreation field.

In the opener Oyler Motors edged out the Texas Lunch 5-4 in a thrilling scrap. The Lunchmen filled the bases in the last half of the final inning with two out and the count ran 3 and 2 on the batter before he skied to left to end the tilt. Eddie Steinberger and Cole formed the winning battery while Saylor and Bartholomew hurried for the lunchmen with Fissel catching.

The G. L. Bream garage trailed 6-4 going into the last of the fifth but came up with seven runs to win 11-6 over the VFW as darkness halted the game at that point. George Fair and Frazer composed the battery-men for the victors with Tom McLaughlin and Hixon working for the losers.

PLAN ROUSING WELCOME FOR HOT SENATORS

Washington, May 13 (AP)—The baseballing Washington Senators crept out of town 12 days ago as unnoticed as so many government clerks.

They come back today to a rousing welcome, despite a 2-1 defeat by Detroit yesterday which snapped a sizzling nine-game winning streak.

On their schedule:

A parade down Pennsylvania avenue (the same street used by President Truman, another underdog who showed surprising strength).

They will be given the keys to the city, and a real senator, Millard Tydings (D-Md.), to greet them.

Good Pitching

Walt Masterson pitched a good game for Washington yesterday, allowing only seven hits, but Virgil Trucks pitched a better one for Detroit. He gave up only five.

Yet it marked the sixth straight day that the Senators got superb pitching. In the last 53 innings the Senators' pitchers have given up only 27 hits. That's an average of only four and a half hits a game.

During that string Sid Hudson pitched a four-hitter, Mickey Haefner a one-hitter and Paul Calvert and Dick Weller combined on a three-hitter.

Red Sox Are Coming

Which brings us around to a question bothering local fans:

Are the Senators really a much better ball club than the seventh place usually reserved for them? Or are they a flower that blooms in the spring—and wilts before the solid hits of July and August?

Today is an open date. But the Boston Red Sox, picked by many as the league's best, move in for a three-game series starting tomorrow.

The Red Sox haven't looked up to their press notices. The Senators have looked much, much better than theirs. It should make an interesting series.

GOLFERS TEE OFF

Shawnee-On-Delaware, Pa., May 13 (AP)—The 16 qualifiers in the Shawnee invitation amateur golf tournament tee off today in the match play leading to the championship on Sunday. Two rounds each are scheduled for today and tomorrow.

Edward J. Meister of Willoughby, Ohio, stamped himself as the man to beat by winning the medal yesterday with a per 36-36-72. He finished two strokes in front of Frank Souhak, Pittsburgh.

East Berlin high moved a step closer to the championship of the Adams County Scholastic baseball league by handing York Springs its initial loop defeat Thursday 8-5 as part of the May Day celebration at the York Springs school.

Nine damaging errors hurt York Springs' chances of victory.

Bill Moul, ace East Berlin hurler, was knocked from the mound in the fifth inning on three straight hits. Previously Moul suffered a laceration of his left leg in sliding into third base after hitting a triple.

Reinecker whiffed 11 East Berlin batsmen and permitted but six hits while his team-mates pounded out an even dozen.

East Berlin can clinch the championship next Friday by winning its final game at New Oxford.

Sun Bahram Held Contender In Race

Baltimore, May 13 (AP)—Trainer Tom Rodrock is hoping to have "beginner's luck" in the Preakness tomorrow.

Tum has been training horses since 1912, but Sun Bahram will be the first starter he will saddle for Pimlico's classic for 3-year-olds.

Tom almost made the 1931 Preakness. He had Sun Meadow ready to go, but the colt got a sore throat the week before and had to be withdrawn.

Sun Meadow showed later he was one of the better colts of his year by finishing second in the Belmont stakes, third and last of the triple crown fixtures.

Sun Bahram is "going to have to run" against the crack Preakness field but Rodrock feels the colt is ready for it. Sun Bahram got a taste of two of tomorrow's probabilities at Havre De Grace.

He was beaten a nose by The Pincher in the Chesapeake trial in which Noble Impulse, one of the likely Preakness starters, was fifth.

In the Chesapeake stakes won by Capot, a probable favorite tomorrow, Sun Bahram wound up fifth but Rodrock blames himself because he took the blinkers off the colt for the first time and he "ran bad."

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)

John Walz and George Dries turned in identical four-hit shutouts Thursday night as Wilmington maintained a two and one-half game edge in the Interstate league.

Walz flipped his four-hitter for the Blue Rocks over Hagerstown, winning 4-0 as Cletus (Boots) Poffenberger lost his first start of the year, largely because of his own wildness.

Dries made his first start for the Allentown Cardinals as a success as he limited the last-place Harrisburg Senators to four safeties while the Cardinals scored a 4-0 triumph.

By winning, Allentown moved into a tie with the Trenton Giants for second place. Trenton dropped a 3-2 decision to York. In the only other contest, Lancaster pounded out a 9-6 victory over Sunbury.

Ken Raffensperger, Reds—Yielded only four singles in pitching Cincinnati to a 3-0 victory over the New York Giants.

HAPLESS BOSOX NOW EVEN WITH 1948 STANDING

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Mei Parnell's pitching is the only bright spot in the dreary spring showing of the mighty Boston Red Sox.

It took Parnell's brilliant 11-inning victory over Chicago yesterday to pull the Sox up even with last year's sorry opening month.

Down south the wise guys said "Boston can't possibly get off as slowly as last year." They were wrong. As of today Boston has a 9-11 record. Last May 13 their won and lost totals were exactly the same.

Parnell struck out 11 White Sox hitters yesterday but needed an 11th inning homer by Vern Stephens to get off the hook, 2-1. It was his fourth victory.

Trucks Stop Senators

Washington's nine-game winning streak finally was snapped by Detroit's Virgil Trucks, 2-1. Don Kolloway, who joined the Tigers Sunday in a trade with Chicago, blasted two doubles and a triple off Walt Masters.

The St. Louis Browns blasted three home runs to rout Lou Brissie and the Philadelphia A's, 9-3. For their third straight following a 10-game losing string.

The New York Yankees and Cleveland were not scheduled.

Cincinnati, which stopped the New York Giants' winning surge after seven in a row, made it two straight on a 3-0 shutout by Ken Raffensperger.

Ralph Branca became the National league's first five-game winner with an 11-6 verdict over Pittsburgh. The unbeaten Brooklyn ace was hit freely throughout the game but outlasted Hal Gregg and four successors.

Another For Phils

Carl Furillo led the Dodgers with two doubles and a triple driving in two runs. Roy Campanella hit his fifth homer off Gregg and Wally Westlake accounted for three of the 13 Pirate hits off Branca.

Hank Borowy, traded to the Phillies by Chicago last winter, whipped his old club mates the first time he faced them, 4-3. Bob Rush gave up only six hits but was hurt by Hal Jeffcoat's costly error on Del Ennis' fly that set up the winning score in the sixth.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, May 13 (AP)—Story out of Jersey City is that the crackup of the Frank Hague political regime means the end of the Little Giants.

Seems the ball club has been avoiding red ink by means of a remarkably low rental for Roosevelt stadium and an amazingly high opening-day ticket sale.

If that deal is called off, the parent Giants are said to be ready to give up. . . . Over in Newark the Bears are ready to give up, period. They just can't attract enough cash customers. . . . A strange thing about the situation, one International league points out, is that the New York clubs which own these teams make tremendous efforts to attract New Jersey customers. . . .

"It's much the same in Columbus, O.," our informant added. "Bill Vecek puts on stunts that draw fans to Cleveland. So do the Cleveland football and hockey clubs. The result is the Columbus fans go there instead of the home games." . . .

The heck of it is none of these teams has any place to go.

Charles Town, West Va., May 13 —With the second lap of West Virginia's 1949 racing season scheduled to open Monday, everything was hustle and bustle here today.

Racing Commissioners Mont M. McIntyre and Frank Brooke, State Steward Senator Andrew R. Winters and Race Secretary Fred Burton were busy taking care of the new stables that have shipped in from various tracks, in Maryland, New England, New York and Kentucky.

Greg Johnson, assistant race secretary, is at Pimlico, Md., cleaning up entries at that point.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

The last-place Williamsport Tigers today had tightened up the Eastern league's fierce flag fight.

The Tigers mauled the leading Elmira Pioneers, 11-2, last night and permitted the Albany Senators to move into a tie for the top spot with a 7-2 decision over Hartford.

The Wilkes-Barre Indians stayed close behind in third place by an 8-7 win over the Scranton Red Sox. The Indians are half-a-game behind Elmira and Albany.

Binghamton blanked Utica, 4-0, then succumbed to the Blue Sox, 11-4, in the second game. The Sox are two and one-half games off the pace in fourth place. The Trips, who replaced Scranton in fifth, are three games behind first.

Chapter 16

To Felicity's surprise, Tippy's absence from the trailer didn't seem to upset the other children unduly. She had been particularly worried about Denny. Would he sit in a corner and mope for his lost twin, the dazzling little beauty who used to be the unquestioned leader in all their activities? That had been her first thought when Susan Fleming had so unexpectedly suggested adopting Tippy. She discovered that Denny had taken on a new air of importance. He had been a subdued little boy, crushed behind Tippy's rather lawless, pugnacious personality. But now he seemed to blossom out. He devoted himself to Ellen with a singleness of purpose that won the little girl's instant love and gratitude. He saw to it that Ellen had fun, yet that she was protected; that she didn't play too hard or get too tired. He fished with her for hours from one of the old piers that thrust planks out into the shining blue of the lake; he baited her hook, threw the line out for her.

Tippy came calling a week afterwards. A regal Tippy, wearing a sheer yellow linen frock, with delicate hints of hand embroidery on the smocked yoke, and with a big yellow hair-ribbon holding her shining curls in order. She had the air of a small queen bestowing largesse on the more humble of her peasant subjects, but Felicity hugged her hard and demanded anxiously to know if she was happy.

"But of course I'm happy, Fliss," answered Tippy, slightly annoyed at such a question. "Living in that beautiful house with Susan—and she's swell! I come down to tea in the afternoons, and she introduces me to people and they all make a terrific fuss over me."

It was a week-day and Jason came in from fishing at the lake, burdened by more than fifty pounds of fish for which he would receive an average of eight cents a pound when he delivered them at the fish market near town.

Jason stared at her his brows lifted a little, the color staining his face beneath the newly acquired sunburn.

"Well, well, if it isn't the Little Queen!" he drawled. There was a note in his voice that made Tippy's small face flush with resentment. "What is this, Duchess?" he asked. "Your day for being kind—in a royal way, of course—to the slaves?"

Tippy turned away with a frown of brief skirts and said haughtily, "I've brought you all some presents. I'll have the chauffeur bring them in, and then I really must be going. Susan said I must be back for tea."

When she had gone the others looked at each other silently above the little heap of tissue-wrapped presents, and nobody made any move to untie a package.

"Tell you what let's do," Felicity said eagerly, almost ashamed of the look she saw on the other children's faces. "It's only two weeks until Christmas. Let's put these away unopened and pretend Christmas morning that Santa Claus brought them—shall we?"

"Okay, Fliss," said the children docilely in a short of Greek chorus effect, with their usual complete conviction that anything Felicity did was exactly right and proper.

At Susan's repeated insistence, they went occasionally to the beach for the children's swimming lessons; but to Felicity's deep regret there was now a barrier between Tippy and the others. A barrier that Tippy herself had raised, and which the other children showed no inclination to cross.

It was at one of these informal little tea parties on the beach that Susan invited Felicity to the Christmas dance she was giving.

"Tell you what, Felicity—it's a costume party," she said. "And I'll wager that among your mother's stage costumes there's something that will make you the belle of the ball. Is there any way you can get something of your mother's to wear at the dance? You've simply got to come even if you wear a bathing suit and label yourself 'The Spirit of Miami!'"

Felicity's eyes widened. "That would be fun. I'd love to wear one of Mother's costumes. I'll write to Uncle Charles and ask him to send me something out of Mother's old stage wardrobe."

Susan felt a little rush of tenderness for the girl. "That's marvelous, darling. And your young man—Garry—be sure to bring him along, too," she said, kissing Felicity's cheek lightly.

That night in the trailer after supper was over, and Garrett had agreed that if "Uncle Charles" would send a man's costume, too, he would go to Susan's party. Felicity wrote her letter.

It was a long letter and told a good deal of what was happening. Felicity told of meeting Susan Fleming, and of her own need for a costume and one for Garry as well. And at the last she tucked in a hurried postscript:

Please don't laugh, Uncle Charles—but I've written a play. I'm sending it along by express, because that's a lot cheaper than mail; and if you have time to read it, I'll promise not to get my feelings hurt no matter how you lambast it. I know it's not good—but it was fun writing it, anyway. Isn't it grand that Father is working again? He sent us some money last week and it's going to make us a grand Christmas. (To be continued)

Fairfield

Fairfield—Mr. and Mrs. Merle Haley, Waynesboro, Mrs. Fannie Brenizer and Mrs. James Neely spent Sunday at Pine Grove Nursery.

Saturday guests of Mrs. Fannie Brenizer were Mrs. Fannie Beisecker Thomas, Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. William Sherlock and children, of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. James Neely entertained the Bridge club Monday evening. Prizes for scores were won by Mrs. Luther Kepner, Mrs. Kermit Spence and Mrs. J. Warren Martin. The club will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Robert McClellan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan have started work on their new home to be constructed on Main street, extended.

Mrs. Mark Baker and family, Taneytown, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Seabrook.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Fairfield Community fire company and later confirmed by the company members, Robert Kleppinger was made president of the company. The election was made at this time due to the resignation of Paul Myers who resigned due to his business interfering with his duties. At the same meeting President Kleppinger appointed Paul Myers chairman of the Labor Day carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCullough and family have moved to Arlington, Va.

JET PLANE AND GOOSE COLLIDE

Anchorage, Alaska, May 12 (AP)—Geese and jet planes don't mix at 500 miles an hour.

Take it from Lt. Kelsey O. Wynns, 64th Fighter Squadron pilot from Oklahoma City, Okla., who came out groggy but victorious over a flock of ducks and geese today.

He was on a training flight from Elmendorf Field when "all of a sudden a big explosion took place," he recounted.

Wynns was knocked unconscious momentarily.

"When I recovered I started to bail out, but I realized the motor was still running so I headed back for the field, dropped the tip tanks, and landed," he said.

Inspection of the plane following the landing developed that the "explosion" was caused by part of a goose breaking through the cockpit and coming through the left side of the windshield, making a hole big enough to stick a foot through.

The peanut plant, Arachis hypogaea, was believed to have originated in Latin America.

PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM LOOKS "RAGGED" NOW

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, May 13 (AP)—This is a good time to call the roll on Congress. It's mid-May, with this year's regular session of Congress more than half over.

Except for renewing rent control, this Democratic Congress hasn't finished any major item in President Truman's promised program.

And yesterday Senator Taft of Ohio, one of the jockeys of the Republicans in Congress, predicted defeat for a large part of the program.

Good Chance He's Right
At this point there seems a better chance for his prediction to come true than for a large part of the Truman program.

Take a look at the score:
Housing—The Senate has passed a bill to provide government housing for low income groups. The House is expected to do the same. So this probably will become law.

Labor—The House trampled the new labor bill which Mr. Truman and organized labor wanted to replace the Taft-Hartley act. Neither House has passed a new bill yet. Maybe neither will. If Congress does act, it almost certainly will produce a new labor law lots different from the one Mr. Truman asked.

No Chance for Health Insurance
Medical insurance—In spite of all the hullabaloo about compulsory medical insurance, and Mr. Truman's prodding of Congress, this seems to have no chance of passing.

Minimum wage—Mr. Truman and his lieutenants wanted Congress to raise the minimum wage from 40 cts. an hour to 75 cts., besides making some other changes in the minimum wage law. If Congress acts on this, it probably will raise the wage to less than 75 cts.

Under the law an employer whose product crosses state lines must not pay his employees less than 40 cents an hour. That minimum was set back in 1940 when living was a lot cheaper than now.

Civil Rights "Gone Goose"
Social security—Mr. Truman wanted social security pay raised and more people given the benefit of social security. This is still buried in the works in Congress. You'll have to guess whether anything will be done about it at all.

Civil rights—This seems like a gone goose. The Senate wrangled over it for weeks early this session and never got further than preliminaries. In effect, the southern Democrats won their effort to sidetrack it.

Farming—Secretary of Agriculture Brannan came up with a new farm program. This has received praise and criticism. Its chances look chilly.

Taxes—Mr. Truman wanted about a $4,000,000,000 tax raise, mostly on business, to help meet government costs. He still wants this and said

Ex-Pugilist Takes Swing At Motorist

Pittsburgh, May 13 (AP)—John A. Emery, 72-year-old retired attorney who once fought an exhibition bout with John L. Sullivan, took on a motorist yesterday.

Emery said he was nearly hit by a car at a downtown street corner. The motorist stopped—but Emery didn't.

He told police he leaped to the side of the car and took "a poke" at the driver, a 23-year-old youngster.

Emery and the driver were arrested. But Magistrate W. H. K. McDiarmid dismissed charges against both of them.

Fifty-two years ago Emery went three rounds with the great John L.

Licenses Suspended By State Board

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—The following licenses were suspended by the state liquor board effective June 3 for the reasons cited by the board:

Roy J. Bishop, West End Tavern, Chambersburg, 25 days, maintained gambling devices and permitted gambling (retail dispenser's license).

Republican Club of Hanover, 15 days; failed to keep complete and truthful records; maintained gambling devices and permitted gambling (retail dispenser's license).

Harvey M. and Florence Hogan, Hogan's Bar, Shamokin, 50 days; sales to visibly intoxicated persons; sales in excess of 72 fluid ounces for consumption off premises; permitted minors to frequent; maintained gambling devices and permitted gambling; insufficient illumination.

so again yesterday. Republicans and some of Mr. Truman's most dependable allies in Congress are against it. They say "cut expenses, this is no time to raise taxes."

After reading this you're probably saying "the President's program is beginning to look raggedy." It sure is.

To help meet shortages of fats and oils, Britain is operating a huge project for growing oil-rich peanuts in East Africa.

GOVERNOR SIGNS MANY BILLS IN HOSPITAL ROOM

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—Unclaimed funds of life insurance companies would be turned over to the state under a new law effective January 1, 1950.

Gov. James H. Duff approved today a bill to require life insurance companies to report each April 1 all funds due policy holders or beneficiaries which have gone unclaimed for seven years or more.

The reports will be made to the state Revenue Department which would advertise for the owners in the county of the last known address of the policy holders. If the funds have not been claimed by November 1 of each year, the insurance companies will be required to turn them over to the state.

Working In Hospital
At the same time, Duff signed a companion measure exempting life insurance companies doing business in Pennsylvania from the commonwealth's 1937 escheat law.

James P. Malone, Jr., state insurance commissioner, said the new law was enacted to clear up conflicting claims between Pennsylvania and other states as to which state is entitled to unclaimed insurance money.

"Actually, very little money is involved," he said.
The governor is acting on legislation in his room at the Mercy hospital at Pittsburgh with state police shuttling back and forth with the

UNOFFICIAL RED CHARGES AGAINST WEST

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Berlin, May 13 (AP)—The Russians accused the Western Allies today of "torpedoing" the agreement to lift the Berlin blockade.

A Western spokesman promptly labeled the accusation "a lot of nonsense." The spokesman was Lawrence Wilkinson, economics adviser to the U. S. military governor. "We were told by our governments to remove all restrictions put into effect since March 1, 1948," he said. "We've done that and more."

The Soviet protest was voiced informally, through the mouthpiece of the Soviet army newspaper in Germany, Tseelische Rundschau.

Emphasizes Russian Needs
"The Western powers are evading the lifting of their restrictions under invalid pretexts," it charged. "The agreement cannot be fulfilled by the Soviet side alone," it added.

Some observers saw in those words an implied threat to reimpose the blockade—but such a step would be a matter of policy for higher authorities than the Russians in Germany to decide.

But the Rundschau statements did lend emphasis to the Russian need for getting supplies from western Germany for her nearly bankrupt occupation zone.

Wilkinson said that at a four-power meeting of economic chiefs here yesterday the Russian representative insisted on a formal order reinstating the East-West trade agreement of 1948. The allies contend it is no longer applicable, he said. Wilkinson said another meeting may be held today.

One Rough Spot Eased

"We told him east Germans were welcome to buy or sell anything they wanted with the west Germans and that the Western powers would not restrict interzonal trade," Wilkinson said. "All individual contracts made by German firms under the 1948 agreement could be revived if the firms so wished. But he kept quibbling that the 1948 agreement had to be officially reinstated as of March 1 last year."

However, one source of friction—a dispute over exports from Berlin to the Western zones—seemed to have been removed.

The Soviets had incurred Western wrath yesterday by refusing to allow trucks from west Berlin to travel to the Western occupation zones without obtaining permits from the Soviet military or the Russian-backed German Economic commission. West Berlin and west Germany are separated by 100 miles of Russian-controlled territory, the geographical fact which made the blockade possible.

However, early today west Berlin police quoted the officer commanding the Russian highway checkpoint outside Berlin as saying such trucks now need only an order from the west Berlin government.

RESUME BERLIN MAIL SERVICE

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Normal U. S. mail service to Berlin was resumed Thursday with the lifting of the blockade.

The Post Office Department notified all domestic postmasters this morning that the embargo on surface parcel post for the German capital has been set aside. It told them they could again accept such parcels and at reduced postage rates: Six cents per pound for the U. S., British and French zones, and 14 cents per pound for the Russian sector.

Surface parcel post was the only mail service affected by the Berlin blockade. Air parcel post and air mail was carried into the trouble zone by American overseas airlines under contract. Surface letter mail was handled by air lift planes.

Surface parcel post to Berlin was embargoed the first week in March after an unsuccessful effort to establish a relay of such parcels—largely gift packages—through the Baltic countries.

At one time the Post Office Department arranged to send the packages to Sweden for transfer to Russian authorities, but a regular service was never worked out.

Polish authorities then agreed to accept the U. S. shipments for relay to the Russians. That worked for a while but Poland later advised it could handle packages only for the Soviet zone, "due to transportation difficulties." The service was then suspended.

Memphis, Tenn., May 13 (AP)—A nine-year-old boy lined three young companions against a bedroom wall Wednesday and took a shot at them with a rifle. One of the three was

Clay Wants To See A Unified Germany

Berlin, May 13 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay told the west Berlin city assembly in a speech Thursday the western military governors "would like to see a unified Germany."

"However, it must not come about by any sacrifice of basic principles of freedom" that are outlined in the west German republic's constitution, the U. S. military governor said.

Clay and Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, British military governor, who also was present, were to fly to Frankfurt to meet with French General Pierre Koenig. The three are expected to approve the west German constitution, a step preparatory to its submission to west German state legislatures for ratification.

The assembly stood in silent tribute to 51 American and British fliers killed in airlift accidents, and voted to name a square near Tempelhof airfield in their honor. It will be called Platz Der Luftbruecke (Place of Airbridge).

SOME TRUCKERS BOYCOTT 'PIKE

Uniontown, Pa., May 13 (AP)—Some truck company officials and owners say they're not going to use the Pennsylvania turnpike "because we can't afford the luxury x x x if weight limits remain at 45,000 pounds."

Morgan B. Shipley, president of Atlantic Freight Lines, Inc., said a large group of truckers plans to station men at all entrances of the turnpike Sunday "to warn drivers against using the toll road."

Shipley stated last night: "Pennsylvania allows only a gross load of 45,000 pounds for trucks. We have to pay $7.50 a truck, one way, on the turnpike. We simply can't afford the luxury of using this fine road if the weight limits remain at 45,000 pounds."

The truck weight regulations in Pennsylvania evoked a major battle in the state legislature whose 1949 assembly ended less than a month ago.

A state official said at Harrisburg that trucks contribute an average of 55 per cent of revenues on the 160-mile toll highway linking points just outside Harrisburg and Pittsburgh.

Sheriff's deputies said John Harold Newman fired the shot from a combination "over and under" gun—a 410 gauge shotgun—22 caliber rifle.

RUSSIAN SAYS SOVIET EMBASSY IS SPY CENTER

Washington, May 13 (AP)—Senators asked a Russian who split with the Kremlin to tell them more today about his charges that all Soviet diplomatic officials have "a spy versus Crouse."

The statement was made to a Senate judiciary subcommittee late yesterday by Kirill Alexeev, former commercial attaché at the Russian embassy in Mexico City.

Alexeev said the group Soviet espionage flourishes in this country and is directed from the Russian embassy here by the Communist NKVD, the Kremlin's secret police.

Yesterday's session at which Alexeev appeared was a public one, with reporters present. Alexeev told the subcommittee that cramped his style some, so the senators arranged for the witness to return today and name names behind closed doors.

Most Reds Are Spies

Alexeev appeared before the subcommittee in response to a subpoena. His Russian was translated by an interpreter.

He said he quit the Soviet embassy in Mexico City late in 1946 because he does "not approve Soviet policy," and "no longer wants to be a citizen of the U.S.S.R."

Answering questions put by Richard Arens, the subcommittee's chief investigator, Alexeev said:

"Every representative of the U.S.S.R. who has a diplomatic passport has a spy responsibility."

The witness said, too, that "not less than 50 per cent" of those who come to the United States from Russia or her satellite countries have "a spy responsibility."

Alexeev added that "spy activities are developed very highly in the United States by the Soviet embassy" and the satellite country embassies.

Littlestown CALLS T-H LAW

Harry's softball team defeated the Littlestown Foundry by a score of 8 to 2 on Thursday night. Tonight there will be a game between the Eagles and Redeemer's Reformed church.

The schedule for next week will be: Monday, Mystic Chain versus Littlestown Foundry; Tuesday, Harry's versus Redeemer's church; Wednesday, Windsor Shoe versus Mystic Chain, and Friday, Eagles versus Crouse's.

Scheiwer's garage, South Queen street extended, Littlestown, has just received the newest addition to the Kaiser line of cars — The Traveler, which is a utility and field car with the appearance of a four-door sedan. There are two deck lids on the rear — the upper half of the lid and the entire rear window panels raise to roof level. The bottom drops to form an extension to the cargo compartment floor. The rear seat moves forward and down into the floor, thus making extra cargo space. This car is on display now. The public is cordially invited to visit the show room of the garage to see this newest addition to the Kaiser line.

Mrs. Robert Crist, Centennial avenue, Hanover, was hostess to the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Centenary Methodist church on Wednesday evening. The pastor, the Rev. Grantas E. Hoopert was in charge of the devotions. Mrs. Grace Harner, vice president, was in charge of the business. Secretary's report was presented by Mrs. Mary Dillman. Plans were discussed for a covered dish supper to be held in the Sunday school room in the near future. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, May 31, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Shadle, Blacks Corner, Md. Refreshments were served at

CALLS T-H LAW "TIME BOMB"

Harrisburg, May 13 (AP)—A top labor leader says the Taft-Hartley law is a "time bomb" that can bring "catastrophe to the American labor movement."

Joseph D. Keenan, executive director of the American Federation of Labor's League for Political Education, said if the law is allowed to remain in force "the same fate will befall labor in America as happened in Germany under Hitler."

At the same time, Keenan told the state Federation of Labor's annual convention yesterday that "here in Pennsylvania the labor movement has been pretty smug over the past 10 years."

"They felt that when the chips were down they could make their congressmen get in line," Keenan said, "but it just didn't happen that way." The labor leader asserted that "here in Pennsylvania we have one the close of the meeting by the hostess.

Vote $300 Increase In Preachers' Pay

Allentown, Pa., May 13 (AP)—A $300 increase in minimum salaries for ministers has been voted by the of the greatest anti-union forces in America."

Keenan outlined what he termed a nationwide political education program by the AFL to aid election of lawmakers "friendly" to labor. "We want to get this organization down to the precinct level," he said, adding, "our hope eventually is to have a precinct captain in every precinct in America."

Earlier, James L. McDevitt, federation president, sounded a call to arms for "political action" as the only "salvation" for the labor movement in the commonwealth.

At the same time a $200 increase up to $2,000 a year was voted for young ministers on a trial basis. To arrive at the $2,400 figure, more than 600 delegates overrode recommendations of their commission on world service and finance, which recommended minimums be increased to $2,300. The world's total peanut production in 1948 was nearly 11,000,000 tons.

HOUSE LABOR COMMITTEE IS LAYING PLANS

Washington, May 13 (AP)—House labor committee Democrats were asked to call together Thursday to plan a strategy for getting minimum wage legislation passed, a move which would mean the repeal of the Taft-Hartley law, and the House would have to pass the bill.

As the 16 party members responded to the call of Chairman Lesinski (D-Mich.), some of them predicted a bitter battle on general labor law. It was their first gathering since the six-day House labor debate end next week. Rayburn, who is taking a personal interest in the first caucus this year to hold in the current maneuvering which all Democratic members were over labor legislation, has told reporters he wants a new Taft-Hartley repeal bill to follow the minimum wage bill.

Earlier ones were called without wage measure to the floor within a fortnight three southerners, Reps. Wood of North Carolina, and Georgia and Lucas of Texas.

The committee's majority members have been split at least a half-dozen ways on what to do about raising the minimum wage and writing a new labor law.

Some have insisted on reviving the Wagner Act, putting through a 75-cent minimum wage, and broadening the wage-hour law. That is just about what the administration has been between those extremes.

Others want to keep most or all of the Taft-Hartley law, raise the minimum a little, if at all, and leave the wage-hour law pretty much as it is.

The remaining Democrats have been between those extremes.

Some Opposition The committee was under instruction from Speaker Rayburn (D-Mich.), to have a minimum wage bill ready for floor action before the end of the month—maybe as soon as the six-day House labor debate end next week.

There was some committee opposition to these instructions. At least two Democratic members want to put the whole labor problem aside for a while and work on some education bills, two of which are awaiting hearings.

"Hot Rods" To Race At Williams Grove

Williams Grove, Pa.—May 13—

Holder of a new world's record for roadsters, Bob Flock, of Atlanta, Ga., member of the three-brother team of stock car racing team, is expected to set the pace for the "hot rod" races to be held on Sunday on the half-mile Williams Grove Speedway.

Flock will drive the new roadster equipped with an Edelbrock motor recently completed by Rod Vogt, Atlanta mechanic, in which the Atlanta driver won the first annual National Grand Prix roadster race at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., in record-breaking time.

The few remaining birds of the once numerous whooping crane flocks winter on the Texas coast. Early day Hudson Bay company men had to be able to carry a 90 pound pack plus food and sleeping equipment 80 miles in four days.

Western Allies Approve New West German Federal Republic's Constitution

RESERVATIONS ATTACHED WITH 3 SIGNATURES

By RICHARD O'REGAN
Frankfurt, Germany, May 13 (AP)—The Western allies approved with reservations last night the new West German Federal Republic's draft constitution.

Thus they gave themselves a high trump card for use in the May 23 Paris peace talks with Russia seeking a solution to the entire German problem.

They are shooting for an ultimate agreement uniting the Soviet zone of Germany with the republic, and hope the constitution, which guarantees a free government of the people, will be the basis for settlement.

Sign Constitution
The Americans, British and French also ordered an "occupation statute" or interim peace treaty for the western occupation zones' 45,000,000 Germans, to come into force the day the West German government takes office. Its terms had been announced earlier this year.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, for the United States; Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, for Britain, and Lt. Gen. Pierre Koenig, for France, signed the constitution. Their action cut away the last obstacle for formation of the first German civil government since the war.

The draft constitution now goes to the 11 state parliaments in western Germany for ratification which may be completed before the end of May.

Watch for "Jokers"
The military governors signed with reservations designed to make sure that no "jokers" in the constitution's wording would permit the Germans to do these things:

1. Violate the occupation statute which limits German government activity in the fields of armament, the industrial Ruhr valley, foreign relations and trade.

2. Form a strong central police force under any pretext without the occupation authorities' consent.

3. Give west Berlin representatives at this time voting rights in a future government. West Berlin is excluded from the proposed republic.

4. Change state borders "until the peace treaty."

5. Use any device to achieve "excessive concentration of authority" in the central government.

MOTHER HELD FOR MURDERING HER INFANT SON

Hazleton, Pa., May 13 (AP)—A 26-year-old woman who described herself as a child psychologist, was held on a murder charge today in the fatal beating of her infant son. Jailed is Mrs. Martha Woodson Kalwa, an expectant mother.

Police Chief Steve Havrilla said she told him she beat her 15-month-old son, Henry, on the head because she thought he was developing "a Freudian jealousy of Karen (his sister), suspecting I cared more for Karen."

Havrilla said the young woman added she suspected "the boy was going into temper tantrums to annoy the little girl" and so she decided to punish him by repeated slapping.

The police chief said the baby's abdomen was purple from beating, both lips were discolored and his head injured from banging on a floor.

While Mrs. Kalwa remained in jail, her husband, Dr. Henry J. Kalwa, 30, a dentist, was in seclusion with Karen, who is two and one-half years old.

The woman was arrested yesterday two hours after the child died at Hazleton hospital. Havrilla said she was coherent and calm except for two wild outbursts of tears.

Was School Teacher
Mrs. Kalwa said she studied psychology at William and Mary college, Williamsburg, Va., and taught school at Richmond before she was married.

She said, Havrilla related, that when she first began to suspect her son of "Freudian jealousy," she decided to send him to her family's home in Richmond where, she said, her father is a judge.

But, Havrilla quoted her as saying, she changed her mind and decided she would punish him by bumping his head on the floor—"and I've been doing that for some time."

Fancy is a short form of the word, phantasy.

Home Run Frees Four Prisoners

Plymouth, Mass., May 13 (AP)—A home run "drove" four prisoners out of the Plymouth House of Correction Wednesday.

When a guard opened the gate to retrieve a ball that had been batted over the fence by a softball player, the prisoners dashed out. They were headed for the woods of Myles Standish Reservation when last seen.

LITTLESTOWN COOKING SCHOOL PLEASES MANY IN LITTLESTOWN

Littlestown and vicinity women who attended The Gettysburg Times Littlestown second annual cooking school Monday and Tuesday nights in St. Aloysius auditorium, were not only generous in their praise of Mrs. Margaret E. Coverly-Smith, the lecturer-demonstrator, but showed their appreciation for the efforts of The Gettysburg Times and the merchants and manufacturers who cooperated in making the school possible.

Many expressions, both written and verbal, have been received from women who attended, testifying to their interest and enthusiasm in the school. A typical example read:

"Want School Again
"Congratulations to The Gettysburg Times for bringing the cooking school to Littlestown."
Other comments included:

"I hope we will have cooking school again next year."
"Enjoyed cooking school very much. Hope you come again next year."

Mrs. Coverly-Smith made a real "hit" with the Littlestown audiences, judging from other comments. Some of them said:

"Dear Margaret, enjoyed this so much. Please come again."
"Please return next year."
"Hope to see your smiling face next year."

"You have been most interesting. Come again."
"I am sure we all are glad to have you here this year. Won't you come back again?"

SOCIETY MARKS "FAMILY NIGHT"

Family Night was observed by the Ladies' Aid society of St. Luke's church, White Hall, Wednesday evening when a covered dish supper was served to 87 members and their families. The program included: Prayer, the Rev. J. M. Myers; recitation, "Welcome to Mothers," Evelyn Breighner; story, "The Echo," Mrs. John C. Brumbach; address, Dr. Myers; scripture, Psalm 24 and prayer, Mrs. Fred Hartlaub.

A business meeting was also held in charge of the president, Mrs. John H. Hartlaub. Miss Betty Hartlaub presented the secretary's report and Miss Ruth Hofe, the treasurer's report. Refreshment trays were purchased by the members to be used at the meetings. The church will be cleaned on May 31. All women of the church are asked to come and help in the cleaning. It was also decided to hold a strawberry festival in the social hall on Friday, June 3.

A guess package contributed by Mrs. Robert Gladhill was received by Mrs. Parr Breighner. A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Claude Flickinger, Mrs. Robert Gladhill and Mrs. Edward Breighner presented their report and elections were held with the following results: President, Mrs. John H. Hartlaub; first vice president, Mrs. Guy McCabe; second vice president, Mrs. Parr Breighner; secretary, Miss Betty Hartlaub; assistant, Miss Velma Flickinger; treasurer, Miss Ruth Hofe; assistant, Mrs. Samuel Snyder; pianists, Mrs. Garland Leatherman and Arline Krumrine. The oldest person present was Mrs. Daniel C. Shanbrook; the

Mother-Daughter Gathering Held

About 40 were present at the Mother-Daughter gathering held in the form of a covered dish supper by the Ever Willing class of St. John's Lutheran church, Wednesday evening in the social hall. Mrs. Dale Stary served as toastmistress. Following a scripture lesson read by Mrs. Albert Starnier and prayer by Mrs. Harry W. Badders, teacher, the president, Mrs. Charles Tressler, gave an address of welcome. Then followed: reading, "No Occupation," Mrs. Fred Leister; vocal duet, Alvin and Charolyn Groft, accompanied on the piano by their mother, Mrs. Alvin Groft; reading, "Mother's Job," Mrs. Wilson Greene; reading, Mrs. Charles Tressler; vocal solo, "Mother Machree," by Mrs. Edgar E. Yealy, accompanied on the guitar by Dale Stary; reading, Mrs. Darrell Ecker; duet, by the Groft girls; reading, Mrs. James Duttera; vocal duet, "Now Is the Hour," Mrs. Edgar E. Yealy and Dale Stary. The program closed with prayer.

A short business meeting was held in charge of Mrs. Tressler. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, June 14, at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Spangler, Black's Corner.

C.C. DISCUSSES PEDDLER FEES

At the regular meeting of the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening in the Alpha Fire hall, it was voted to recommend to the borough council that they raise the fee for outside peddlers from $10 to $50 to protect the local merchants. It was also decided to have Roger J. Keefe, the borough secretary, issue cards of authorization to those solicitors whom the Chamber approves. Mr. Keefe was present and given some idea as to who should receive the cards. Those not having cards, should be turned down by members of the Chamber as well as by the other people of the borough.

After a discussion on spraying, it was decided to dispense with aerial spraying this year and to spray manually, those sources where the mosquitoes breed. Since the sanitary sewer system has been put into service, it was felt that there would not be any need for an aerial spray.

President John Bloom, who was in charge of the meeting, appointed a committee consisting of William Thomas, L. Robert Crouse and Edward F. Hawk to contact the factories to see whether it will be possible to set up a vacation schedule, so that all will be vacationing at the same time. Several factories have already designated the week of July 2.

$355 Raised For Cancer Fund Drive

The final report on the Cancer drive in Littlestown and vicinity reveals that a total sum of $355.52 was collected. Over $100 was collected by the Girl Scouts; $12.87 was realized in the collection received at the high school, when the cancer film was shown; $31.31 was received through the coin boxes placed in stores, banks, etc.; and the balance was donations from social, fraternal and professional organizations and also individual contributions.

Mrs. Leon H. Gage was chairman of the drive. Other members of the committee were Mrs. Charles W. Weikert, Mrs. Earl Inners, Mrs. Cloy Crouse, Mrs. Robert Gouker, Mrs. Donald B. Coover and Mrs. Monroe Stately. Mrs. Gage and her committee express great appreciation for the cooperation and contributions of the citizens of the community.

It was also voted to dispense with meetings during June, July and August. The next regular meeting, therefore, will be held Thursday, September 8. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Paul Bowman, assisted by the officers.

The Federal Reserve system began operation on Nov. 16, 1914.

STARTER AND GROWER

Simplicity of feeding saves labor. That's one reason you'll like this balanced, all-mash feed. Start your chicks on it, keep feeding it until they're ready for fall laying, and your birds will go into laying pens hardy and well developed. It's a complete feed; needs only grit and water as supplements. Quality guaranteed.

ALL SALES SUBJECT TO STOCK ON HAND

These prices feature "Extras" that aren't!

If you're price-conscious these days as you shop for new cars, you've probably made a big discovery.

It's important to find out what the price includes—particularly in the normal "spread" between list and delivered prices.

Take these Buick prices given here. All of them, as the panel tells you, cover such universally wanted accessories as radio and antenna, heater and defroster, windshield washers and built-in back-up lights.

These are individually itemized on your bill of sale. Not itemized, but still included in your Buick when you get it, are many things that classify as extra-cost items on many other cars.

For instance, Foamtex seat cushions are an extra value on Buick SUPERS and ROADMASTERS that cost you nothing extra. You get direction signals, rear wheel shields, a flexible steering wheel, an air cleaner, an oil filter, a clock—all included in the basic list price. On all ROADMASTERS, these prices even cover Dynaflo Drive as standard equipment, not an extra-cost item.

Included also, of course, are such Buick extra values as Fireball power, which you get nowhere else—all-coil springing, almost an exclusive—the widest rims in the industry—and that very special and desirable solid Buick feel.

So—check the "extras" when you price today's cars. Check the "deal" too, and make sure it's as fair and aboveboard as the Buick sales policy.

We're pretty sure what your conclusion will be when you see what stepped-up production is doing to deliveries. You'll decide "Buick's the buy!"—and get your order in.
